

Death ship 2

The Tiger Lillies

That ship waits for all of us black-lipped towards us thrusts You'll be dead in one more day so our souls will take away Death maiden licks lips with lust and towards us does thrust Knows our souls to her belong so for us this death song She'll take our souls the end is nigh she'll take our soul the pirates' prize She'll take each one of us to Hell the mariner rings his bell
