

Divine

The Tiger Lillies

As we go along life's way there'll be blue skies, there'll be grey,
but your good times will be mine,
everything's divine.

Laugh away, when we play, cry with me on the sad days, you and me we are entwined,
everything's divine,
everything's divine.

there'll be blue skies, there'll be grey,
but your good times will be mine,
everything's divine,
everything's divine,
everything's divine.
