

Happy End

The Tiger Lillies

Hollywood style you know you must smile
Though the end though the end makes you retch
Given beauty and youth hide them from the truth
The last thing they need is respect

So let's all pretend
There's a happy end

God can explain the reasons for pain
There's no need to feel vexed
And in the end you gotta pretend
Like a dog like a dog you must fetch

Well let's all pretend
There's a happy end
Religion football and sex

Well rainbows yuppies smiling puppies
Where everything's right and correct
Then there's the opium trail the opium trail
Of religion football and sex

Well let's all pretend
There's a happy end
Religion football and sex
Sex
Sex
Sex
