

Holy Men

The Tiger Lillies

Tyrants and conquerors
Continue to rage
While those who want justice
Dance on their graves

While family albums
Continue to bulge
With family people
Who will indulge

Holy men living
Stainless and pure
All of these things
They have to endure

Happy memories
With family and friends
Births joyful beginning
Death's grief at the end

While sad sex gods
Continue to fair
Greed in their stomach
And desire in their hair

Holy men living
Stainless and pure
All of these things
They have to endure

Well holy men living
Stainless and pure
All of these things
They have to endure

And holy men living
Stainless and pure
All of these things
They have to endure

Well holy men living
Stainless and pure
All of these things
They have to endure
