Normal

The Tiger Lillies

Normal the trouble, normal the fear Normal the distress, normal the tears Normal the yearning when you go away Normal, you want them to stay

And these tears that run down your face Hide them, it's a disgrace

Normal, your blunting of mind Normal, your lust and normal, you're blind And normal, you crave for what you can't have Normal, you're feeling sad

And these tears that run down your face Hide them, it's a disgrace

Normal, your decline and slide Normal, your loss of pride And normal, you want to scream Normal, you're a machine

A disgrace, a disgrace A disgrace, a disgrace
