

Over You

The Tiger Lillies

The angels in the sky well each one watched you die &
each one sheds their tears for you.
The angels in the sky well each one they do cry & each one they feel sad & blue.

Over you over you.

God reserves a place a very special place a very special place for you
All of heaven mourns & each one is forlorn & each one they feel sad & blue.

Over you over you.
