

River Of Tears

The Tiger Lillies

A river of tears is what you will cry
When it is your turn to die
Whatever you try to defeat
It's all ego and deceit

A river of tears is what you will cry
When it is your turn to die
So with blood lust cut her flesh
Until there is nothing left

A river of tears is what you'll cry
Because there is no reason why
You're enemy it lies inside
That serves your greed and foolish pride
