

Snake Woman

The Tiger Lillies

She'll wrap herself around you like a vine around a bough
Spitting out her venom to the satanic vows
Each man she entices them with her satanic spell
She leads them all to ruin then takes them down to Hell
Snake woman...

They wrap themselves around you how quietly they hiss
Now you taste saliva how dirty is their kiss
Snake woman...

After they have gone they will shed their skin
While you're left feeling dirty they'll feel free of sin
Snake woman...

So a snake around you with her teeth will bite
After they have strangled you in the blackest night
Snake woman...

Evil evil evil is her kiss
If you listen closely you can hear her hiss
Snake woman...
