Snake Woman

The Tiger Lillies

She'll wrap herself around you like a vine around a bough Spitting out her venom to the satanic vows Each man she entices them with her satanic spell She leads them all to ruin then takes them down to Hell Snake woman...

They wrap themselves around you how quietly they hiss Now you taste saliva how dirty is their kiss Snake woman...

After they have gone they will shed their skin While you're left feeling dirty they'll feel free of sin Snake woman...

So a snake around you with her teeth will bite After they have strangled you in the blackest night Snake woman...

Evil evil is her kiss
If you listen closely you can hear her hiss
Snake woman...
