

Three pairs of arms

The Tiger Lillies

You got three pairs of arms
now your body is embalmed
So you died, no one's cried, freakshow trunk blessed by monks
They are paid how depraved how they smiled you defiled
You got three pairs of arms
Smell the paint you they taint half you shock half they mock They're so cruel to you freakshow fool just a freak well the future is bleak
You got three pairs of arms
You on the outside you're looking in is it all evil is it all sin?
They don't care as they stare as they curse you and swear
You got three pairs of arms...
