

Trancred and Clorinda

The Tiger Lillies

They had a little fight
They slashed each others flesh with swords
Until they lost their lives
They fought their holy battle
Then went to God above
Well God he said you've fucked up bad
I am a god of love
Trancred and Clorinda
They had a little fight
They slashed each others flesh with swords
Until they lost their lives
So noble warrior types
You'd better beware
You think you're going to paradise
God won't have you there
Trancred and Clorinda
They had a little fight
They slashed each others flesh with swords
Until they lost their lives
Thou shalt not kill God once said
He meant it through and through
Warmongers and soldier pawns
Looks like you're all screwed
God is gonna get ya
God is gonna get ya ...
God is gonna get each one of you
