

Winners and losers

The Tiger Lillies

Love is like a battlefield
A weapon used
How often have a pair of eyes
Destroyed and abused

All is fair in love and war
Winners and losers by the score

But just as war is never sacred
Love will always be
Those who do betray
Hell waits eternally

All is fair in love and war
Winners and losers by the score

The greatest warriors
In the flames of hell will burn
Hell has no fury
Like a lover spurned

All is fair in love and war
Winners and losers by the score

The starcrossed lovers
They bathe in bliss
The glory
Of their first kiss

All is fair in love and war
Winners and losers by the score

And Parting is
Such sorrow sweet
The white hot coals of hell
They'll eat
All is fair in love and war
Winners and losers by the score
