

Oh, Baby

The Time

Oh baby, we're all alone.
Nowhere to go, no telephone.
Just you and me and this big old bed.
You ain't got nowhere to go.
You might as well stop being so cool.
Honey, baby, break down.

Oh baby, take off your clothes.
Do it over by the window.
Feel the wind blow.
That's the atmosphere.
Ooh baby, come here.

Oh baby, honey take your time.
Cause when you come, you come and come.
That's when I get mine.
Until then, I said honey, "Close your eyes".

Yeah, oh baby.

Oh baby, baby, don't make me wait.
Don't make me wait.
Oh, no, no, I can't stand it, baby.
Don't make me, don't make me wait, girl.
Oh, no, no, no, girl.

What's it gonna be, baby?
You know I can't wait.
Please, please. You know you ain't got nowhere to go.
We've come this far, come on.
Oh, baby.

Break down, baby.
Go on and break it all down.
Give me your love.
Give me your mind.
Break down!

Oh, baby, let me do ya please.
