

Opened Up

The Tiny

opened up your door though you may find it to be scary i don't intend to catch your heart then open up your dreams though you may find them to be frightening i don't intend to catch your eyes i'm reaching for your cliff top i'm jumping off with grace finding out that this game, i'm the only one who plays

so i opened up my door and yes, it seemed just like a fairy tale but no one ever stays here alone and i opened up my dreams and yes, i found them to be frightening and i'd only wish to stay here on my own so i'm reaching for your cliff top

and finding out that this game,

so, reaching for your ground and jumping off with grace
and finding out that this game,
