

Too Heavy A Burden

The Tiny

if i was strong enough
i'd carry you home through the storm, but i'm not enough, you see and if i could i would be your long lasting love for sea, but i'd be drowning there, you see i am not enough, you see x 3

i'd carry you home through the storm,
and if i could i would took you, in each night, sing you, to sleep untill you can find relief but i am not about to risk no i am not that strong, you see i am not enough, you see
