

at this aim
angles seem justified
hind sight
has no
vantage point so just so you know I had it in me for keeps breath softly
sight and squeeze
and then we'll breath different air and these are our halls
these actions never acted on we watched them move in stride
so just so you know
for keeps
live your worth
accountability
live your worth
only then will rise
move on from these halls these walls set free this tragedy and memory will rise
