Running Out

The Tremeloes

I'm running out of teardrops
Running out of heart aches
Sick of tired of your lies, excusin' what you do
I'm running out of forgiveness
I'm running out of doin' my best
And one ol' day before you count to two
I'll be there running out on you
I'm running out of strength to fight
Running out of lonely nights
I'm running out of cloudy days
And always feeling blue
I'm running out of pride and vein
And running out of hurt and pain
And one ol' day before you count to two
I'll be there running out on you
I gave you all my lovin'
Just to be mine
I try to do what's right
And be good and kind I made up my mind
I'm gonna leave you alone
If you don't believe I'm leaving just count the days I'm gone
Running out of being a fool
Running out of going by the rules
Sick and tired of feeling shamed
And defending what you do
I'm running out of the words to say
I'm running out of prayers to pray
And one old day before you count to two
I'll be running out on you
Running out of heart aches
Running out of lonely nights
Running out of being a fool
Running out of going by the rules
I'm running out, yes I am
I'm running out, yes I am
