

Rockin The Cradle

The Trews

ByeBye baby you drive me crazy I hear that you go all night long
You're my best defense, there's no consequence
Ride with me don't walk alone

Rockin' on the cradle she goes all night long
All the little chickies love to sing along

The lipstick stain on the empty glass means that somewhere somehow it
's time to go home
Death to the innocent the backseat lover's gazed into each other's eyes
And sang out this moan:

Rockin' on the cradle she goes all night long
All the little chickies love to sing along

I don't know how much more I can look at this I get excited
One more time from everyone I'm sick to death of the uninvited

I believe I'm gonna get you going wild
I believe I'm gonna get you going

It's only a simple game, you can't win again, I can win again, it's your turn to loose
I'm built to fight with street sense, killed by innocence
Tell me something I already know

Rockin' on the cradle she goes all night long
All the little chickies love to sing along

Goodbye babe, not for long
Goodbye babe, not for long

Rockin' on the cradle she goes all night long
All the little chickies love to sing along

I don't know how much more I can look at this I get excited
One more time from everyone I'm sick to death of the uninvited

I believe I'm gonna get you going wild
I believe I'm gonna get you going wild
I believe I'm gonna get you going wild
I believe I'm gonna get you going wild.....
I'm gonna get you going wild
I believe I'm gonna get you going wild
I believe I'm gonna get you going wild.....
I'm gonna get you going wild
I believe I'm gonna get you going wild
I believe I'm gonna get you going wild.....
I'm gonna get you going wild
