Rockin The Cradle

The Trews

ByeBye baby you drive me crazy I hear that you go all night long You're my best defense, there's no consequence Ride with me don't walk alone Rockin' on the cradle she goes all night long All the little chickies love to sing along The lipstick stain on the empty glass means that somewhere somehow it 's time to go home Death to the innocent the backseat lover's gazed into each other's ey es And sang out this moan: Rockin' on the cradle she goes all night long All the little chickies love to sing along I don't know how much more I can look at this I get excited One more time from everyone I'm sick to death of the uninvited I believe I'm gonna get you going wild I believe I'm gonna get you going It's only a simple game, you can't win again, I can win again, it's y our turn to loose I'm built to fight with street sense, killed by innocense Tell me something I already know Rockin' on the cradle she goes all night long All the little chickies love to sing along Goodbye babe, not for long Goodbye babe, not for long Rockin' on the cradle she goes all night long All the little chickies love to sing along I don't know how much more I can look at this I get excited One more time from everyone I'm sick to death of the uninvited I believe I'm gonna get you going wild I believe I'm gonna get you going wild I believe I'm gonna get you going wild I believe I'm gonna get you going wild..... I'm gonna get you going wild I believe I'm gonna get you going wild I believe I'm gonna get you going wild..... I'm gonna get you going wild I believe I'm gonna get you going wild I believe I'm gonna get you going wild..... I'm gonna get you going wild
