

After All You Said

The Tubes

I guess you're still too wild
After all you said
And did not mean

What hides behind the smile
After all you said
And made believe

Riding line doesn't sound so bad
Just the wide open spaces
Lots of time to reflect the past
Lots of time to forget your face

Someone
I thought we talked about it all
Somewhere
Who wrote the writing on the wall
Somehow
It just took some time to reveal
Someone
The lies were painfully real

Imagine for so long
After all you said
And would not say
Illusions are all wrong
After all you said
And could explain

Riding line doesn't sound so bad
Just the wide open spaces

Someone
I thought we talked about it all
Somewhere
Who wrote the writing on the wall
Somehow
It just took some time to reveal
Someone
The lies were painfully real

No more tears
After all you said

Can't expect the clouds to clear
If you're left in darkness
Your reflection's not in the mirror
I suspect you're heartless
