

Last Laugh

The Turtles

Once I was sad and lonely
I lost my one and only
You would have found someone new
But now I found somebody too
And your love approved untrue now
I got the last laugh on you

Here last last laughs best they say
Now I know that it's true
'Cause I found love, well he broke your heart
Now I got the last laugh on you

You went and put me down
The talk spread around the town
Of how you have found a new guy
But since then true love came my way
And we've set the wedding day
While you sat at home and just cry

Here last last laughs best they say
Now I know that it's true
'Cause I found love, well he broke your heart
Now I got the last laugh on you

I hate to say I said so
And now I'm getting wed
So it's much too late to pretend
But remember as times goes by
If you make another cry
That he'll laugh at you in the end

Here last last laughs best they say
Now I know that it's true
'Cause I found love, well he broke your heart
Now I got the last laugh on you
I got the last laugh on you
I got the last laugh on you
