

Barney Rubble

The Twang

She said 'I'm leaving
And that's the way it is'
He said 'I'm coming on home honest'
She said 'Why dya always say that You've no intention? Why dya always do that?'

It's this repetitive repetitive nonsense
That brings her down
And it's my double trouble Barney rubble chit chat
That causes her frown

And I'm staying out
What I really want is you
What I really want tonight with you
And when I could it was good
At the time I thought I should
What I really want tonight with you

She said I'm leaving
Can't take no more of this
He said 'but that's the last time, I promise'
She said 'why dya always say that, you've no intention'
But she always says that

It's this repetitive repetitive nonsense
That brings her down
And it's my double trouble Barney rubble chit chat
That causes her frown

And I'm staying out
What I really want is you
What I really want tonight with you
And when I could it was good
At the time I thought I should
What I really want tonight with you

It's my arrogant way
She can't get her head round
It's her indifferent called difficult way
I'll still tout

I'm staying out
What I really want is you
What I really want tonight with you
And when I could it was good
At the time I felt I should
What I really want tonight with you
And when I could it was good
At the time I felt I should
What I really want tonight with you
And when I could it was good
At the time I felt I should
What I really want tonight with you
And when I could it was good
At the time I felt I should
What I really want tonight with you
And when I could it was good

At the time I felt I should
What I really want tonight with you
