

A Wild Romance

The Twins

I guess you can't imagine
Just what it meant to me
When one look was sufficient
To transform seconds into eternity.

Life is too short
To waste it in this way
To stare through one another
And to pretend everything will be okay

Feelings of longing, imagine a new desire
Feelings of longing, the one thing that I require.

A wild romance with you
A meeting by chance with somebody new
A wild romance with you
A wild romance with somebody new.

I think you know
That habit causes apathy
And how I hate this loneliness
That surrounds us when you are with me.

Feelings of longing, imagine a new desire
Feelings of longing, the one thing that I require.

A wild romance with you
A meeting by chance with somebody new
A wild romance with you
A wild romance with somebody new.
