

Heaven In Your Smile

The Twins

Moments of dismay
Grip my body tight
And hold me here
I want to escape
To break off these chains
of doubt and fear
It's an emptiness
It's the feeling I get
Without You.

I only exist
For the memory
That you were mine
A Picture's engraved
Upon my minds eye
Of a forgotten time
It is distant now
It is meaningless
Without You.

There is heaven in your smile
And a light is in your eyes
It's a secret you can't hide
There is heaven in your smile.

Time passes by
And only confirms
Everything I feared
All of the things
That I once lived for have disappeared
It's a hollow world
It's a world without aim
Without You
You are lost to me now
And it's lonely here
Without You.

There is heaven in your smile
And a light is in your eyes
It's a secret you can't hide
There is heaven in your smile....
