

Must Have Her Back

The Twins

The raindrops rattle on the window pane
As if the rain will never end
This loneliness is driving you insane
You said your will would never bend

You said your will was ever constant
That men of principle keep cool
No thought of phoning for an instant
But now you're asking who's the fool

Just admit - you must have her back
It is true - admit - you're out on your luck
Without her - to love - you're lost in this world
Without her - admit - you must have her back

And so you still refuse to ring her
You tell yourself that she's a flirt
If she's a flirt you're a beginner
Who are you really trying to hurt

I see you standing all alone now
It must be hurting underneath
You say you want to stay at home now
I think you're lying through your teeth

Just admit - you must have her back
It is true - admit - you're out on your luck
Without her - to love - you're lost in this world
Without her - admit - you must have her back

Face the facts - you knew - you must have her back
It is true - admit - you're out on your luck
Without her - to love - you're lost in this world
Without her - admit - you must have her back
