

You take me in your arms again
You know, I'll give you peace of mind
Another place in time my friend
The voices will subside
My shadow will encompass you
You know, the sun will surely fade
And all I gave I'll take from you

But you know you can't quit me
I'll never set you free

Show me the vain, feeling no pain
I'm taking you higher
Caught in the vice, rollin' the dice
I'm taking you down
You can't be still a matter of will
You're playing with fire
Held by a chain you're going insane
I'm taking you down

Reflections in the mirrow show
You are, a face without a name
You're spinning on my carousel

And you know you can't quite me
I'll never set you free

Show me the vain, feeling no pain
I'm taking you higher
Caught in the vice, rollin' the dice
I'm taking you down
You can't be still, a matter of will
You're playing with fire
Held by a chain you're going insane
I'm taking you down

You'll take me in your arms again
You will, to still the beast inside
I know you won't quit me
I'm your Jesus, I'm all that you believe

Show me the vain, feeling no pain
I'm taking you higher
Caught in the vice, rollin' the dice
I'm taking you down
You can't be still, a matter of will
You're playing with fire
Held by a chain you're going insane
I'm taking you down
