

Mothers sweep your little lies
Right before your children's eyes
Fathers just ignore this new disease
Tv raises children well
Intravenous show and tell
They're going down our steps on hands and knees

You're sleeping the day away
Wake up, wake up
Acknowledge a brand new day

And you will shine (shine)
Like the sun in the sky (you will shine)
The stars burning bright in their eyes
And you will shine (shine)
Like the stars in their eyes (you will shine)
The sun burning bright, you will shine

Occupation alibis, the dollar is the great disguise
All along the papers stained with tears
And with your self-inflicted lies it's just ourselves we hypnotize
And all your gold won't wash away the fear

Stop sleeping your life away
Wake up, wake up
Acknowledge a brand new way

And you will shine (shine)
Like the sun in the sky (you will shine)
The stars burning bright in their eyes
And you will shine (shine)
Like the stars in their eyes (you will shine)
The sun burning bright, you will shine

And you will shine (shine)
Like the sun in the sky (you will shine)
The stars burning bright in their eyes
And you will shine (shine)
Like the stars in their eyes (you will shine)
The sun burning bright, you will shine

And you will shine (shine)
Like the sun in the sky (you will shine)
The stars burning bright in their eyes
And you will shine (shine)
Like the stars in their eyes (you will shine)
The sun burning bright, you will shine
