

Alone

The Unseen

not gonna explain myself to the likes of you tired of feeling sorry for feeling the way i do ive heard that you cant please everybody on this earth so from now on im putting myself first doing what you know to be right, fuck everybody else doing what you feel to be right, you only got yourself never turn your back on friends that are true sooner or later it comes down to you stand up for yourself and what you believe as long as you're true to yourself, theres nothing you cant achieve!

there comes a time when you may find yourself down and beaten NO HOPE, NO FUTURE, total utter abandon but you gotta take control, rise up outta nothing only you can help yourself, your strength comes from within have pride in nothing, cause nothing is sacred.
