

Waste Of Time

The Unseen

you want to think I have a problem well think again it lies within you you act so rude and immature well ill act the same I wont acknowledge you but yet you still wanna run your mouth why even waste the time I despise your whole existence and that's the bottom line your a waste of time don't waste my time

[chorus:]
no need for adolescent gossip fact is that you need to grow up don't concern yourself with my life because I could care less what you do [repeat]

and you say hello to my face ingrates and sellouts to our backs its no miscommunication guts is something that you lack your a jealous bitter waste of time there is no need to pretend I don't owe you thing your not my friend

your a

waste of time
don't waste my time

[chorus]

you wonder why I feel like this come on open up your eyes your outcries are so pathetic that is why I say your a waste of time, don't waste my time

[chorus]

I could care less what you do (4x) your just a waste of time (7x) your just a waste of my time
