

Hoping for Snow

The Vamps

I've made mistakes but so have you
It's been a year of nothing new
And now I'm waiting for this to unfold
They raise a glass, but I'm all sad
I keep awake and spirits high
It's you I'm hoping to meet in the cold

And no, you're not the only reason I came home
But maybe it's the seasons, I don't know
And maybe it's because I'm on my own

Last year you took a piece of my heart
This year, I guess it's fallen apart
Everyone's hoping for snow
But I'm just hoping that you come home
Last year, we stole a dance in the dark
This year, we're just a thought from afar
Everyone's hoping for snow
But I'm just hoping that you might make it home

I catch a breath, it chills my lungs
It takes me back to when we were young
I always seem to get lost in the past
As I let go, I breathe you out
Before my eyes, you form a cloud
And disappear and you stick to the glass

Oh, you're not the only reason I came home
But maybe it's the seasons, I don't know
Maybe it's because I'm on my own

Last year you took a piece of my heart
This year, I guess it's fallen apart
Everyone's hoping for snow
But I'm just hoping that you come home
Last year, we stole a dance in the dark
This year, we're just a thought from afar
Everyone's hoping for snow
But I'm just hoping that you might make it home

I see you out, out in the street
And nothing on your face shows that you're missing me
And all our friends from way back when Keep asking me just how you've been and how I've been
And it's killing me

Last year you took a piece of my heart
This year, I guess it's fallen apart
Everyone's hoping for snow
But I'm just hoping for you to come home

Last year you took a piece of my heart
This year, I guess it's fallen apart
Everyone's hoping for snow
But I'm just hoping that you come home
Last year, we stole a dance in the dark
This year, we're just a thought from afar

Everyone's hoping for snow
But I'm just hoping that you might make it home
