Money's Not an Issue

The Vandals

Well I know you been working most nights And I think you deserve something nice for once, you do And the twins they've been driving you nuts But tonight your in luck. Guess what, Here's what-

Hey Babe we're going out tonight were finally gonna do it right No more pinching pennies with a broke ass loser I've had a change of luck, I found the twenty bucks I thought I lost under the sofa I'm feeling like a hundredaire and baby I just don't care Where we go or what we spend So grab your friends-cuz Money's not a issue tonight

Hey baby were going out tonight just bring your appetite for luxury and fun cuz Money's not an issue Go on baby now make a wish I'm feeling Irish rich I found me pot o' gold and living large, it fits you Feel free to super size cuz tonight dreams are realized

I know that's it's been rough and you don't get the stuff That such a pretty lady is so deserving of but now that's not the case I'll shower your sweet face with Champagne dreams and Moustache kisses I'm well aware that I've been kind of cheap and tight but all that's changed and were going to do it right so tell your friends that-Money's not an issue tonight
