

More Like Me

The Veronicas

I'm sorry your name doesn't touch his lips
I know it kills you to find out like this
And I think you're crazy
For letting him slip through your hands
I heard you're waiting around, but you don't stand a chance

The truth hurts and someday you'll see...

If you were more like me
You'd have kissed a little longer
Held on a little tighter
You'd have never let him leave

If you were more like me
You'd have hit a little harder
Scratched his heart a little deeper
With a love that makes you bleed
If you were more like me

I see where you are
From the other side of a broken heart
You don't make me nervous from where I stand
There's no competition... don't you know who I am
With me he's a better man

The truth hurts and someday you'll see...

If you were more like me
You'd have kissed a little longer
Held on a little tighter
You'd have never let him leave

If you were more like me
You'd have hit a little harder
Scratched his heart a little deeper
With a love that makes you bleed
If you were more like me

You've been hanging on long enough
You can chase but you can't keep up

Should have screamed a little louder
Pulled him in a little closer
Got down on one knee...

If you were more like me
You'd have fucked a little harder
Moved in a little faster
Been impossible to leave

If you were more like me
You'd have kissed a little longer
Held on a little tighter
You'd have never let him leave

If you were more like me
