

Drive You Mild

The Verve Pipe

And if I ever drive you mild, and Suffering this open kiss
And I'm barely juvenile

When everyone is outrageous,
And I alone will be sleeping through the afternoon

And if I ever drive your style, and Suffering your day predicted
With no ability to rile

And every yawn is is contagious
And I alone will be sleeping through the afternoon

I should drive you wild,
Yes I should drive you wild

Ever drive you mild
Ever drive you mild
Ever drive you mild
