

Killer On The Internet

The Vibrators

He's somewhere out there on the web
in the electronic darkness you now dread.
Somewhere out in the big blue,
somewhere closin' in on you.

Killer on the internet
what you see is what you get.

He tells you what he's gonna do
when he gets real close to you,
is he in Hong Kong or Mandalay,
or is he just a street away.
And why did he pick your name,
is he rational or insane.
Maybe he's just virtual,
maybe he can't hurt you at all.

You wonder what he does with us this time,
waitin' for you to come on line.
And if it came to a fight,
would he destroy you with his megabytes.
He's real vicious, he's real mean,
see his worlds appear on your screen.
He wants to know the colour of the panties you wear,
at a VDU his eyes do stare.

He's somewhere out there on the web,
in the electronic darkness you now dread.
Somewhere out in the big blue.
Somewhere closin' in on you.
