

Sunday

The View

Skip away from a darkened day, and wake me up on Sunday
Steal a light from a broken night, and wake me up on Sunday
Take a drink from a dirty sink, and wake me up on Sunday
Lift a pound from the sticky ground, and wake me up on Sunday

Cos when I feel the need to be true I won't ask you
Oh when I feel the need to be true I won't ask you
I'm not stealing hope from you
I'm not stealing hope from you

Run away from a drunken day, and wake me up on Sunday
Shift along to the safety song, and wake me up on Sunday

Cos when I'm looking for something new I won't ask you
Oh when I'm looking for something new I won't ask you
I'm not stealing hope from you
I'm not stealing hope from you

Take a note of the scenic road girl
Jump around to the stolen sound

I'm not stealing hope from you
I'm not stealing hope from you (So wake me up on Sunday)
