

All That You Do

The Vines

All that you do
And all that you say
With nothin to lose
So far away

I don't wanna go
I just wanna stay
Maybe I don't see
Any other way

Runnin through a field
Throw your mind away
Nothin else is real
So what's it gonna take?

All that you do
And all that you say
With nothin to lose
So far away
