He's a Rocker

Once there was a young man No one could understand Wastin' time every day He got nothin' to say

All he ever playin' is That rock n' roll music Rock n' roll music yeah All he ever wanted was a reason to do it Reason to do it yeah

Well he know every line (He's a rocker) For the rhythm n' rhyme (He's a rocker) Move his head to the beat (He's a rocker) As he walk down the street (He's a rocker)

C'mon let's trip again Just like how we used to I wanna trip again We ain't got nothin' to lose

All he ever playin' is That rock n' roll music Rock n' roll music yeah All he ever wanted was a reason to do it Reason to do it yeah
