Truth

The Vines

Tell me where you're goin'
I've already seen the other side
It's all I know and nothin now can do me right, I pray

Lonely as the days I knew, babe Tired of feelin strange and blue

Phone me in the morning

Count on me to let you down without a word or warning

I'll be gone and living far away

Lonely as the days I knew, babe Would I be O.K round you?

Sha, la, la, la

Tell me what you know and I will see if it rings truth My mind is overflowin
I believe that we all meet again
