

Love Is Colder Than Death

The Virgins

Rosie
Well I know we're both being used
Don't make no sense
Just to carry on as we do

You know I'd love you if I knew you'd let me down
Now go remind you of yourself now
So we need to get away
Oh we want to get away
But we'll never get away, not now

When we're passing on the street
We both look the other way
Was it just a fantasy
Was it only in my mind
Said it feels so strong
I don't know

Don't let your love be colder than death
Don't let no teardrops fall from your eye
Well I know we both seem confused
Don't make no sense
Just to carry on as we do

Don't let your love be colder than death
Don't let no teardrops fall from your eye
When I'm walking down the sidewalk
When I'm passing by the bus stop
Then I think of your dead end
When I'm passing by the bus stop
When I'm walking down the sidewalk
Then I think of your dead end

If her tears drop
Well then she
Gave herself away
