

Nowhere to Hide

The Virus

I spend all my money
Just to survive
But it's hard to keep up
Because cost is on the rise

It's hard to keep up, hard to survive
There's nowhere to run, there's nowhere to hide

The more that I make
The more they take away
The more things I need
The more I have to pay

It's hard to keep up, hard to survive
There's nowhere to run, there's nowhere to hide

They say success - I say depressed
I keep getting paid - yet always running on empty
The more that I try - The more that I die
In my fu*king world - I'll never be free

It's hard to keep up, hard to survive
There's nowhere to run, there's nowhere to Hide
