

Heaven When We're Home

The Wailin' Jennys

Don't know what time it is, I've been up for way too long and I'm too tired to sleep I call my mother on the phone, she wasn't home, and now I'm wondering the street I've been a fool, I've been cruel to myself I've been hanging onto nothing when nothing could be worse than hanging on And something tells me there must be something better than all this

I've fallen many times in love and every time it's been with the wrong man Still I'm out there living one day at a time and doing the best I can Cuz we've all made mistakes that seem to lead us astray
But every time they helped to get us where we are today And that's a good a place as any and it's probably where we're best off anyway

It's a long and rugged road
and we don't now where it's headed
But we know it's going to get us where we're going
And when we find what we're looking for we'll drop these bags and search no more
'Cuz it's going to feel like heaven when we're home
It's going to feel like heaven when we're home

There's no such thing as perfect, and if there is we'll find it when we're good and dead Trust me I've been looking but tonight I think I'll go and take a bath instead And then maybe I'll walk a while and feel the earth beneath me They say if you stop looking it doesn't matter if you find it And whose to say that even if I did it's what I'm really looking for

It's a long and rugged road
and we don't now where it's headed
And when we find what we're looking for
we'll drop these bags and search no more
'Cuz it's going to feel like heaven when we're home
It's going to feel like heaven when we're home
