

Man From Reno

The Walkabouts

If I could lose, If you could choose
For this next Dance you might choose me

I ain't no pussy with the blues
Just step out on the floor and see

Can't follow a man from Reno
Follow a man from Zurich
Follow a man from Italy

Can't follow a man with brain grass
Follow his long long eye gas
Follow a man from Munich
Running out of luck
Running out of luck in the midnight

Zodiac killers drained their hands
And wipe away the shadows from the walls

Neighbours all say he's got no friends
His friends all say you've got him by the balls

Look up
You might even shred the stars
Look up
Might even stop the scars

Zodiac killer needs that crack
He wants you back
He's waiting in the bars

Zodiac killer needs that crack
He wants you back
He's waiting in the Bars

Can't follow a man from Reno
Follow a man from Izmir
Follow a man from Wyoming

Follow this waving heather
Follow the angry weather
Man from Sarajevo

Running out of luck
Running out of luck in the midnight

Zodiac killers drained their hands
And wipe away the shadows from the walls

Look up
You might even shred the stars
Look up
Might even stop the scars

Zodiac killer needs that crack
He wants you back
He's waiting in the bars

In the midnight, in the midnight
In the midnight, in the midnight
After midnight, after midnight, after midnight
