Man From Reno

The Walkabouts

If I could lose, If you could choose For this next Dance you might choose me

I ain't no pussy with the blues Just step out on the floor and see

Can't follow a man from Reno Follow a man from Zurich Follow a man from Italy

Can't follow a man with brain grass Follow his long long eye gas Follow a man from Munich Running out of luck Running out of luck in the midnight

Zodiac killers drained their hands And wipe away the shadows from the walls

Neighbours all say he's got no friends His friends all say you've got him by the balls

Look up You might even shred the stars Look up Might even stop the scars

Zodiac killer needs that crack He wants you back He's waiting in the bars

Zodiac killer needs that crack He wants you back He's waiting in the Bars

Can't follow a man from Reno Follow a man from Izmir Follow a man from Wyoming

Follow this waving heather Follow the angry weather Man from Sarajevo

Running out of luck
Running out of luck in the midnight

Zodiac killers drained their hands And wipe away the shadows from the walls

Look up You might even shred the stars Look up Might even stop the scars

Zodiac killer needs that crack He wants you back He's waiting in the bars In the midnight, in the midnight
In the midnight, in the midnight
After midnight, after midnight, after midnight
