

Wake Me Up Before I Sleep

The Walkabouts

Wake me up before I sleep
I'll promise that i'll concerntrate
On only the last frame
Cover only one sound
Some kinda sweet
Weird kinda strange around me

Wake me up before I sleep
Can't you see too many colours here
Colours there
Colours everywhere
Cover only one ground
The blackest of blacks
I don't want to surround me
There's nothing I can say
That isn't gonna be
There's nothing I can do
That isn't gonna be
A mistake

Wake me up before I sleep
I haven't had an inch of what
I thought I got
From this awful high
Cover me in one dye
Just lie here with me
We'll let the train go by
There's nothing I can say
That isn't gonna be
There's nothing in my way
I know it's gonna be
A mistake
