

Someone Somewhere

The Wannadies

Hello again my sunshine in rain
I hope you're well I've missed you so it's hard to tell
Say goodnight my blueberry light
And dream of me and while you dream I have to leave

To someone somewhere, I'll be coming back
'Cause somewhere someone is waiting

Here again you never know when
I want you near at least a weekend every year
Say goodbye my blueberry pie
I think you're oh so beautiful I have to go

To someone somewhere, I'll be coming back
'Cause somewhere someone is waiting
To someone somewhere, I'll be coming back
'Cause somewhere someone is waiting

Someone somewhere, I'll be coming back
'Cause somewhere someone is waiting
Someone somewhere, I'll be coming back
'Cause somewhere someone is waiting

Someone, somewhere
Someone, somewhere
Someone, somewhere
Someone, somewhere
