

What You Want

The Wannadies

I'm firm and calm with you in my arms
From heaven sent, the omniscient
And I'm depending on your fear
Consolation in a strange way, dear

What you want, what you need
What you want to believe in
What you want to achieve
What you want to believe in
What you want to, I won't let you
Because I love you, yeah

Manipulation of the soul
Don't try to win, I'm in control
Whatever pleases you I fear
Consolation is getting stranger, dear

What you want, what you need
What you want to believe in
What you want to achieve
What you want to believe in, yeah
What you want, what you need
What you want to, I won't let you
Because I love you
