

She takes my breath away
She's got me calling everyday
I can't seem to get enough
Could this be love?

Could this be love?
I'm feeling drifting up
On ceilings with your touch
Could this be love? (love, love)
'Cause when we kiss
My heart drops like a bomb
I'm in pieces when you're gone
Could this be love? (love, love)
Could this be love?
Could this be love?
Could this be love?
Could this be love?
Could this be love?
Could this be love?
Could this be love, love, love?
Could this be love?
