

The Enforcer

The Warriors

I am the enforcer.
Internally I exist.
I am the power of the new age that you must never betray.
Don't upset the balance of the system we work so hard to maintain.
To speak or be silent, the lesson you learn.
When it all crashes down there'll be nowhere for you to turn.
This clock is ticking.
I know you must be thinking that life is not worth living for.
Mistakes that will outweigh your time frame.
24 hours a day and we're still paving the way.
This is the new age.
We keep you busy trying to afford the molds we set for you.
We make it so you stay on the loop.
WE MAKE IT SO YOU STAY IN THE LOOP.
How much longer will you?
The struggle is for life.
people of the future age, they boune me with an iron chain.
They shook my world, they took my name, never to be the same.
So tell me who's to blame?
