There's no one inside
But you're free to relax
If you commit to this ride
There's no turning back
You've been here before
Remember these sheets
This world's not for us
It's not what it seems

We'll learn to love how to dream, dream You'll learn to love how to dream, dream

There's no need to hide
Don't overreact
You said you've been to the sky
We'll go beyond that
You've been here before, girl
Remember these sheets
This world's not for us
It's not what it seems

We'll learn to love how to dream, dream You'll learn to love how to dream, dream I'll teach you to dream, oooh We'll find our love in the sky (6x)

How does it feel? Do you feel like you did before? Do you see the world getting small? How does it feel, are you free? As for me, I've been getting grown As for me, I've been getting old As for me, I've been flying around the world I've been killing these shows But I'm always getting high Cause my confidence is low And I'm always in a rush Ain't no time to fuck slow And even if I try It's not something I would know But I'm sure I'll make you cum Two or three times in a row But I'm sure you would have left Got that pussy in control Put that pussy in control I got it in control Control, control, mmmmh
