

Shining

The Whitlams

I can see it shinin'
It's coming for me coming out of the night
Everything is hummin' It's scarin' me now
It ain't feelin' right Think I might just hide a while
Wait for the night to return
Dark and cold and lonely
Is how I feel and it's feels nice
Don't want any company it just wouldn't feel right
I used to be so happy I could smile
And everything seemed to work out
Now my eyes are startin' to close down
I can see you again In my dreams you're starring
My lost and only friend
We used to have such good times
Why did you have to leave before our time was through?
Everything loos pretty We're far from the city
And I'm holding you in my arms
You feel so alive and so do I Isn't it a pity
Soon I'll wake and soon I'll cry
I can't' stop reminiscing about what is missing
In my life I'm scared of everything
I got nothing to hold onto
If I believed in God then maybe I could give myself up too
But I'm not sure about the after-life
So I'm just gonna go on dreamin' of you
